Democrats Gain Slight Majority in U.S. Congress

Victory in Elections to Fill Five Vacant Seats Gives Party Control for First Time in Thirteen Years—New Representatives Are Wets—Canadian Elected in Michigan

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Decision of Michigan's Eighth District to turn from long-firm Republicanism has eased the Democratic path toward domination in the House of Representatives. That shift provided the starting element in yesterday's few elections to fill vacant seats in Congress. The House standing now is 217 Democrats, 215 Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite.

The expected happened in the four other Congressional votes held. Republicans took the first Ohio district seat left vacant by the death of Speaker Nicholas Longworth, the second Pennsylvania and Democrats were victors in the twentieth Ohio and seventh New York.

HAVE DUAL VICTORY
With eyes ahead to '32 Presidential rivalries, the Democratic leadership is jubilant not only over the prospect of capturing the House for the first time in thirteen years, but for having overthrown Republican state control in New Jersey as well. The change there will raise the list of states governed by Democrats to twenty-six.

Both parties today are awaiting the count in the Kentucky gubernatorial election. The ballots could not be touched last night under state law.

The vote for Governor in New Jersey, with 667 districts reported out of 3,340, was:
David Baird, Jr., Republican, 82,385; Harry Moore, Democrat, 119,096.

ALL ARE WETS
All the new representatives-elect are for out-and-out repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment or modification. The wet bloc in the House now claims about 150 in its group. Three years ago it had less than seventy members.

RETAINS PHILADELPHIA
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Edward Lober Stokes, Republican, was today elected to Congress from the Second Pennsylvania district. His election fills the vacancy created by the death last July of Representative George S. Graham, also a Republican.

SEEK BOARD OF CONCILIATION

Railways Take Initiative in Proposal of 10 Per Cent Wage Cut

OTTAWA, Nov. 3 (CP).—The initial move having been made by the Canadian railway companies, the Department of Labor will now await word from representatives of the 26,500 employees affected, before proceeding further in the establishment of a board of conciliation to look into the proposed 10 per cent wage cut.

The two great Canadian systems and their Canadian subsidiaries have applied for the board, nominating Isaac Philadel, K.C., of Winnipeg, as their representative. The application has been received, and a copy forwarded to the representatives of the five organizations interested. Locomotive engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and telegraphers are all affected by the proposed cut which the companies request. The department is waiting for the railway organizations to indicate their attitude toward the conciliation board application.

When their statement is received and the name of their nominee submitted, Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, will decide on the next step. The practice is to let the two representatives get together and suggest the name of the third, who will be chairman. In the absence of agreement, the minister himself makes the appointment.

CORSICAN BANDIT SLAIN BY POLICE

Two Gendarmes Killed in Battle With Notorious Robber—Ambushed on Lonely Road

By PAUL SCOTT MOWERS

(Copyright, 1931, by The Chicago Daily News, Paris Service)

PARIS, Nov. 3.—Francis Caviglioli, famous Corsican bandit, who held up a mail car on the road to a year ago and who, last August, with his two nephews, held up three summer hotels at Guagnoles-Bains, shooting dead one guest who happened to look out the window, yesterday ambushed a police car containing a lieutenant and five gendarmes, near the village of Bagnone, north of Ajaccio.

Caviglioli, who had been hiding in the mountains during the last few months, had been reported at Bagnone, and a police car started thither immediately. As the car passed between wooded slopes at a lonely part of the road, heavy rifle fire broke out from both sides. Two gendarmes were killed and the lieutenant and another badly wounded.

The two unscathed gendarmes leaped from the car and opened fire on the bandit. Caviglioli himself was killed. The rest of the band escaped into the backwoods, carrying away one wounded.

Conserved for Posterity

THIS giant 900-year-old Douglas fir, measuring eleven and one-half feet in diameter and 300 feet in height, has been rescued from commercial exploitation, together with many other trees of similar dimensions, through the purchase of land holdings on Vancouver Island by Frank J. D. Barnum, of Montreal, and Nova Scotia. Mr. Barnum, pictured standing beside his latest find, intends to conserve these giants for posterity.

Claims His Craft Was Deliberately Rammed and Sunk

Master of Canadian Power Boat Makes Charge Against United States Coastguard Patrol—Reply Given That Notorious Rum Runner Without Lights Sunk in Collision

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—James A. Brennan, British Vice-Consul in Boston, today revealed that the master of the Canadian power boat Sophie E. had told him his craft was deliberately rammed and sunk last night by the United States coastguard patrol boat Harriet Lane.

Brennan said Captain James Bellman, of the eighty-foot Canadian boat, told him his vessel was lying in Boston, today revealed that the Canadian power boat Sophie E. had told him his craft was deliberately rammed and sunk last night by the United States coastguard patrol boat Harriet Lane.

During the ten-month period a total of 47 building permits were issued for construction estimated at $369,286, as compared with 419 permits valued at $358,721 during the corresponding period of last year.

Most gratifying to the municipality, however, is the increase in the number of homes being built in Seattle. So far this year permits for 159 dwellings have been granted, as compared with 130 in the corresponding period of last year.

Average cost of homes so far constructed in the municipality is approximately $1,460, which is taken as an encouraging sign.

Many permits for new homes were taken out during the month of October, total value of construction being estimated at $28,050.

WARNED TO BEWARE
Bellman further alleged, the consul said, that he had been warned several weeks ago by the captain of the Canadian schooner Freight to beware of the Harriet Lane because the patrol boat's commander had said he intended to sink the Sophie E. The schooner Freight was seized last winter and later was released.

The Sophie E. had cleared from St. Pierre, Miquelon, for "the high seas" and "Nassau," October 29, and arrived off Cape Ann Sunday.

REPORTED COLLISION
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Coast-guard headquarters said today the cutter Harriet Lane had reported a collision nineteen miles off Cape Ann with the Canadian power boat Sophie E. and the subsequent sinking of the crippled boat by gun fire.

Officials said the Sophie E. was a "notorious rum runner" and according to the report was running a cargo of rum. The cutter, without lights when struck by the cutter. The report said the crew of the Canadian boat was taken aboard the cutter and the injured vessel then sunk to remove a menace to navigation.

THREE KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION
LOGAN, W. Va., Nov. 3.—Three of five men unaccounted for after an explosion of gas in the Whitman No. 20 mine of the Island Creek Coal Company were known to have met death, and little hope was held for the others as rescue crews searched the workings tonight.

281 miners escaped from the mine after the blast.

A. J. Rossi Re-elected San Francisco Mayor
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3 (AP).—Angelo J. Rossi, a florist, was re-elected mayor of San Francisco today by a margin of 6,807 votes over Adolph Uhl. The complete but unofficial returns gave Rossi 86,530 votes and Uhl 89,743.

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT TAKE SEATS

Formal Opening of Session to Be Held Tuesday—Speaker Chosen

SELECTION OF NEW CABINET DIFFICULT

By GEORGE HAMILTON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The new Parliament met today, but its meeting was only formal, consisting of the election of a speaker and the swearing in of the members. Not until next Tuesday will the King formally declare Parliament open and the work of the session begin.

As the members gathered in the Commons today, the vastness of the Government's victory everywhere was evident. Row upon row of Government supporters flowed into every corner. The Labor Opposition, once the largest single party in the House, occupied three benches. In front and behind were crowded the Conservatives, 473 strong.

LEADS LABOR PARTY
Rt. Hon. George Lansbury, one of the very few former members of the Labor Government to survive last week's general election, sat as acting speaker of the House.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, Prime Minister, and Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader and Lord President of the Council in the National Government, there were cheered too, for Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, National-Laborite Secretary for Dominions and Colonies; Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Conservative Minister of Health; and Sir Herbert Samuel, Liberal Secretary for Home Affairs.

BUILDING GAIN IS ANNOUNCED

Nearly 160 New Homes Constructed in Saanich—Average Cost $1,460

A substantial increase both in the number of permits and the value of construction for the ten-month period ending October 31 was revealed in the Saanich building report made public yesterday.

During the ten-month period a total of 47 building permits were issued for construction estimated at $369,286, as compared with 419 permits valued at $358,721 during the corresponding period of last year.

Most gratifying to the municipality, however, is the increase in the number of homes being built in Seattle. So far this year permits for 159 dwellings have been granted, as compared with 130 in the corresponding period of last year.

SURVEY PARTIES ARE RETURNING

Useful Data on Northern Areas Added in Field Work—Big Game Paradise Found

All existing maps of Thutade, Tatlatui and Kitchener Lakes in Northern British Columbia will have been revised in the light of triangulation surveys carried on today by the Department of Lands in the headwaters of the Skeena, Nass, Bulkley and Findlay Rivers.

It was indicated yesterday by F. C. Green, surveyor-general for the province.

Frank Swannell, of Victoria, and E. R. Foster, of Nanaimo, have been in the field with parties for the Government, and have found existing ideas of the conformation of these waters to be much out of line with what closer inspection has revealed to be the facts.

Much valuable data was gained by the two triangulation parties which entered northern territories this Spring, and which are now returning with their reports.

BIG GAME PLENTIFUL

All reports, Mr. Green commented, stressed the fact that northern parts of the province hold unrivaled claims to a big game area which is unsurpassed anywhere in Canada.

Large numbers of game animals of a wide variety were seen in the North, where, unexploited, they have multiplied in recent years. Fresh water, also, abound with game fish, rendering the entire territory a virtual paradise for sportsmen.

Survey data of considerable value to the Province was secured during the season, adding to work already done in the triangulation of the main valleys in the northern half of the province.

On every range these parties have reported, prospecting is active, and much place development is under way.

Fresh Alarm Grows Over Manchurian Situation as Eighty Killed in Battle

Second Series of Earthquakes Cause Of Consternation

TOKIO, Nov. 3.—Disrupted communications prevented the reception of definite reports as to the loss in life and property caused by the three successive quakes which disturbed the residents of Kyushu and adjacent Shikoku island yesterday. A series of earthquakes shook portions of Kyushu island again today, causing consternation among a populace already frightened by yesterday's tremors, which were the worst experienced in thirty years.

The shocks which occurred early today were regarded as after-effects of yesterday's, and did little or no damage. They spread terror, however, because Kyushu island seldom experiences seismic disturbances.

PARTY CHIEF TO WITHDRAW

Lloyd George Expected to Drop Leadership of British Liberals Today

LONDON, Nov. 3 (AP).—Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, wartime Prime Minister of Great Britain, is expected to withdraw tomorrow from the leadership of the British Liberal Party.

It was accepted as a virtual certainty in political circles tonight that the famous Welshman, who saw the party swing off to other leaders in the recent election, would form his parliamentary conference that he does not intend to seek reappointment as chairman, a post he has held since 1924.

IS PROBABLE SUCCESSOR

Sir Herbert Samuel, one of those who broke away from Lloyd George ranks in the election, is expected to be chosen in his place at the conference of the historic party tomorrow.

The new group of National Liberals who discarded the Lloyd George free trade banner, today elected Sir John Simon to head their faction.

The group which picked Sir John Simon to lead them, comprising about thirty members of Parliament, resolved today to obey the Government while instead of acting as a separate party.

MAY SIT WITH OPPOSITION
Surrounded by his last little family band of four loyal supporters, Lloyd George, according to the best available information, will sit with the Labor Opposition.

Of this small clan—relies of the Welsh leader's once vast following—Miss Megan Lloyd George will be the "mum" and "dad." For her father, her brother Gwyn and her brother-in-law, Goronwy Owen, all sit on the front bench of the Opposition, which presumably they will do.

Funeral of Late J. S. H. Matson to Take Place Today

The funeral of J. S. H. Matson will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. John's Church, Quadra Street.

The service will be conducted by Rev. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick. Following the service, the cortege will proceed to Rose Bay Cemetery, where interment will take place.

VANCOUVER JURY HAS WOMAN AS FOREMAN

VANCOUVER, Nov. 3 (CP).—History was made in Assize Court here today when Mrs. Marion Breveder was chosen foreman of a jury for the trial of Thomas Cook, who is charged with robbery with violence.

The remaining jurors are eleven men.

"You are making history," said Mr. Justice F. B. Gregory, complimenting Mrs. Breveder on her appointment. "It is the first time I ever heard of a lady foreman on the jury."

British Columbia Apples Are Assured of Markets

Steadily improving buying power on the Prairies, firming prices on both domestic and export markets, and assurance that the whole of the 1931 apple crop will find ready sale before the advent of the new crop year, yesterday presented a brighter picture for British Columbia producers, according to officials of the market branch, Department of Agriculture.

A. J. Grant, who as head of the Vernon bureau of market intelligence has been in close touch with the situation, reported definite evidence of stability in Prairie marketing of the British Columbia product, and prices from now on will hold at a level that means a reasonable return to the growers. It was said.

From London comes the encouraging news that British Columbia apples are gaining better bids and prices are stiffening.

Contributing to the return of confidence to the apple areas are the facilities now completed for the storage of that part of the crop which will be used to feed the market during winter months. Also a lessened crop of winter varieties of apples has helped to stabilize Prairie prices. Brokers are buying to meet demand and the whole trend is upward.

Jap Troops Reported Moving on Important Strategic Point in Northwest Manchuria—League of Nations Concerned Over Possible Move by Russia—Tokio Issues Statement

TOKIO, Nov. 4 (AP).—A Mukden dispatch to the newspaper Asahi said today that a Japanese battalion clashed Monday with 500 Chinese bandits near Tautaokou, Manchuria, and that eighty Chinese were killed and 100 wounded. Only one Japanese was reported killed. The battle lasted more than six hours, the dispatch said, and was intensely fought. Tautaokou is about seventy-five miles north of Mukden.

LEAGUE IS ALARMED

GENEVA, Nov. 3 (AP).—Fresh alarm over the Manchurian situation was spread in League of Nations' quarters today when news was officially received that Japanese troops had moved on Tishihar, an important strategic point in Northwest Manchuria.

Dr. Alfred Ess, Chinese spokesman, called at the league secretariat and held a private conference with Sir Eric Drummond, secretary-general, in which he voiced China's fears that the new developments indicate Japan has no intention to withdraw its troops.

The opinion was expressed by those in touch with the controversy that the situation had become worse during the last week.

ARE WATCHING RUSSIA

League authorities were concerned last Russia step in and take military action against Japanese occupation. The council, it was said, would find it hard to bring about any concerted move against the Japanese if Russia's Western neighbors, Poland and Rumania, be worried over Soviet participation in the Far Eastern trouble.

Dr. Ess presented a memorandum and a covering note to the secretary-general, setting forth details of information received during the last few days. This information was that Japan not only was not withdrawing troops from Manchuria but was consolidating troop positions and extending the sphere of operations.

It was said in Chinese quarters tonight that the salt tax has been seized not only at Newchwang but everywhere in Manchuria, with the result that service on foreign loans would be affected.

TO GUARD RAILWAY

TOKIO, Nov. 4 (AP).—The War Office announced today that 500 Japanese troops had been sent to the Nonni River bridge on the Taonan-Anganchi Railway in Manchuria to serve as guards for South Manchurian Railway who will repair the bridge.

Information of this troop movement was communicated to Geneva, the War Office said, where it apparently was misinterpreted as indicating the Japanese were moving on Tishihar, important strategic point in Northwest Manchuria.

Geneva dispatches today said League of Nations' quarters were alarmed over "official" news that Japanese troops had moved on Tishihar.

The Tokyo Foreign Office issued a statement, declaring the matter did not proceed farther north than the Nonni River and would be withdrawn to Tautaokou as soon as the bridge repairs are completed.

PREMIER LAVAL MEETS GERMAN

Reopens Question of Financial Situation After Report to Government

PARIS, Nov. 3 (AP).—Premier Pierre Laval reopened the entire question of Germany's financial situation today at a two-hour conversation with Dr. Leopold von Hoesch, the German Ambassador. Immediately after the conference, Dr. von Hoesch reported by telephone to Chancellor Heinrich Brüning in Berlin and announced that as soon as possible he would have another meeting with the Premier.

Details of the negotiations between the ambassador and M. Laval were not made public beyond a brief communiqué saying that the German representative has been informed of M. Laval's discussions with Mr. Hoover.

AGREE ON PROCEDURE
One of the points agreed upon by the Premier and the President was that initiative in the matter of reopening the questions of intergovernmental obligations rested with the European countries whose interests were involved. Commentaries expected the Laval-von Hoesch negotiations to determine when and by whom that initiative is to be exercised.

Foreign Minister Briand, Europe's "man of peace," and Finance Minister P. E. Flaminio participated in the conference between the ambassador and the Premier.

CREDITS DISCUSSED
It was the impression that reparations and short-term credits were thoroughly discussed. Short-term credits are a matter of great moment to Berlin as the agreement by which they were kept in Germany last summer expires at the end of February.

The French Premier, it is understood, is opposed to any thawing of credits or any action on reparations until after Parliament opens on November 12.

Premier Pierre Laval received the congratulations of his cabinet today at the end of a two-hour session during which he reported in detail on his conference with President Hoover.

SPEAKS ON AUSTRALIA

Lieut.-Commissioner Henry, of Salvation Army, Addresses Kiwanis Club

Lieutenant-Commissioner Robert Henry, of the Salvation Army, whose headquarters are in Winnipeg, and whose jurisdiction extends over the whole of Western Canada, addressed the Victoria Kiwanis Club yesterday afternoon. Having lived there for some years the speaker was able to point out some of the similarities between the two Dominions of Canada and Australia, and also some of the differences.

Like Canada, he said, the Australian Commonwealth had played a splendid part in the war. In the same way that country had been generous in many ways, it being asserted that one third of the revenue of Australia were spent in pensions of one kind or another, including those arising out of the war and old age pensions.

BULB DISEASES ARE DESCRIBED

Dr. William Newton, Pathologist, Addresses Victoria Horticultural Society

An exceedingly helpful talk on bulb diseases was given by Dr. William Newton, pathologist of the Saanichton Dominion Experimental Station, at the regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Horticultural Society held in the City Council Chamber last night.

Three bulbs and their attendant diseases were discussed. They were tulips with their fire disease, narcissi with their eel worm, grey and mosaic diseases, and the iris with its damaging mosaic infection.

NEED OXYGEN

It was important, Dr. Newton said, that tulips be planted in a silty soil permitting oxygen to get at the bulb. Rotting the field crop helped materially in the proper cultivation of the plant, he said. Preserving of the bulb cover by dipping processes were important factors in keeping the bulbs free from disease.

Alluding to the disease prevalent among narcissi of every variety, Dr. Newton said that the eel worm probably was the most harmful. The bulb appeared to be perfect in every respect on the exterior, but on the inside there might be millions of microscopic eel worms.

IMMERSION SUGGESTED

To prevent this disease and cure infected bulbs, Dr. Newton suggested the immersion of the bulbs in water with a temperature of 110 to 120 degrees. It was important, he said, that the temperature be maintained at the proper degree.

The only manner of eradicating the mosaic disease was to destroy the bulb. The grey disease was not so serious and infection only concerned commercial growers inasmuch as it destroyed to some degree the freshness of the plant's foliage.

PREVENT DISEASE

The iris was a flower which was being grown with considerable success in Victoria and everything should be done to assure its commercial success. For this reason every effort should be made to prevent the spread of mosaic disease.

The first essential in this regard was to give iris bulbs very careful handling as they were easily damaged, which left them susceptible to mosaic. The other precaution, he said, was to immediately destroy, by burning, all iris bulbs affected by mosaic.

CAN PREDICT EARTHQUAKES

Seismologists Now More Expert, Napier Denison Tells College Students

Seismologists are becoming so expert in their knowledge of earthquake conditions that people who are nervous about living in earthquake-infested zones are seeking their advice before buying residential property.

This was one of the many interesting facts mentioned by F. Napier Denison, director of the Dominion Meteorological Bureau, Gonzales Heights, in an entertaining and informative lecture on "Earthquakes," which he gave last night for the Science Club at Victoria College. Numerous lantern slides illustrated the talk, among the pictures being half a dozen or more of vertical and horizontal earthquake-measuring instruments similar to those used at the Meteorological Observatory here, in connection with which the principle was explained.

Several other slides were from photographs of records of notable seismic disturbances made here, including that of the great Chinese earthquake of March, 1923; the earthquakes of 1918 and 1920, whose epicentres were located west of Vancouver Island; the earthquake of February, 1925, so violent in Quebec that it put their sensitive seismographs out of commission and necessitated their seeking information from Victoria as to the whereabouts of an earth disturbance whose centre was in their own vicinity.

FORECAST CONDITIONS

"Large power companies, such as those at Ocean Falls and Powell River, which are taking out insurance against earthquakes, are now consulting the seismologists for advice before starting the construction of plants which represent an investment of millions of dollars," said Mr. Denison at the point. The seismologist had now become so expert that with a fair degree of certainty, from a study of the "lines of weakness" girdling the earth and by means of observation, comparison, and interpretation of charts, they could forecast earthquake conditions in any given area. Many people in California now consulted the seismologists before buying property.

A certain dramatic interest attached to the lecture through the vividly descriptive association of picture and fact in the stories of the blasting asunder of Krakatoa and of the great Alaskan earthquake. Richard Holmes, chairman of the Science Club, presided, and William Findlay made the vote of thanks to the speaker.

CIVIL SERVANTS TO MEET AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Nov. 3 (CP).—Delegates from Vancouver, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Toronto, Kingston, Montreal and Saint John will attend the annual meeting of the National Institute of the Civil Service of Canada, here, November 23-25. It was announced today at a meeting of the advisory committee that the meeting would be held here.

The nominations committee announced the following officers will be elected by acclamation at the annual gathering: President, Dr. F. S. Archibald; honorary secretary, N. T. Allan; editor of Bulletin, C. W. Gowers. All are of Ottawa. Other officers will be elected by ballot at the meeting.

Railway Workers Return to Jobs

EDMONTON, Nov. 3.—Canadian National Railway workers have taken more than a hundred men here, many of whom were laid off a year or more ago as a result of 50 per cent increase in grain movements.

Canadian Pacific has also sent a large but unlisted number for the same reason. One large Edmonton industrial plant paid more than $200 a day by sending thirty miles south of Hallow, Kansas Province.

Peck made representations to the Foreign Office, which assured him it would take all possible steps to effect Mr. Vinson's release.

Navy Blimp Wrecked in Heavy Wind

CAPE MAY, N.J., Nov. 3 (AP).—The navy blimp K-1, largest non-rigid dirigible in the world, was wrecked here tonight as a ground crew manoeuvred it into its hangar.

The 220-foot dirigible was just back from a cruise to Lakehurst, and had been brought to the ground when the accident occurred. Darkness had fallen as the ground crew was working the blimp into its hangar when a gust of wind caught it and hurled it against the hangar door.

The nose of the craft was torn with a roar of escaping helium, and the blimp collapsed, lurching in the wind the gas bag was caught in a barbed wire enclosure and the fabric ripped to ribbons. The ship's crew of five, commanded by Lieut. F. Bailey, had left the gondola before the berthing was started.

LIFE OF LENIN IS DESCRIBED

Dr. J. A. Pearce Tells Round Table Members of Work of Russian Leader

"Lenin and Bolshevism" formed the topic for the second of a series of addresses on Russia now being given to members of the Round Table Club at their weekly dinner meetings. The lecture was given last night by Dr. J. A. Pearce, a member of the club.

Born in 1870, Lenin grew up as the son of a superintendent of schools in Russia and an ardent student of the works of Karl Marx, particularly "The Manifesto of the Communist Revolution."

In 1887, Alexander and four of his comrades were hung for conspiracy and this embroiled in the young brother's burning hate and a determination to devote his life to the cause of Communist revolution. While a student at the University of Kazan, Lenin was expelled for leading a student revolt. Later he studied law at the University of St. Petersburg.

During his college life he devoted his time almost entirely to organizing groups of Marxian revolutionists.

FOUNDED UNION

At the age of twenty-five he founded "The Union for Fighting for the Freedom of the Working Class," secretly publishing a paper known as "The Working Class."

In 1895, however, he was caught, and after fourteen months in prison was sentenced to Siberia for three years. While in exile Lenin kept on writing and secretly published "The Development of Russian Capitalism."

From 1899 to 1905 he lived in Germany, France, Switzerland, Zurich, Paris, London and Russia, his one passion and ideal being to create leaders for the class war which he saw to be inevitable. In 1903 he was chosen leader of the Maximists, or Bolshevists—the party which advocated active revolution.

During the 1905 revolution in Russia Lenin took no active part, but by observations made up his plan for Soviet Government. The Great War found Lenin in exile in Switzerland, and when revolution occurred in Russia in 1917 Lenin and his associates hastened to the country, overruling Kerensky, the ruler, and made himself dictator of Russia, forming his Bolshevik party into the "Council of Commissioners of the People."

DISCUSSES REVOLUTION

Various phases of the revolution were discussed by the speaker, who emphasized the part played by the peasants in stealing farms and the industrial workers in seizing factories. The reasons why Communism broke down and why Lenin instituted his new economic policy were also explained.

LABOR DOWNED IN MUNICIPAL VOTE

Party for a Control in Twenty Important Cities and Boroughs in Britain

LONDON, Nov. 3 (CP).—Caught in an adverse vote, the Labor party lost 416 seats in the municipal elections held yesterday in England, Scotland and Wales, becoming a minority.

The Conservatives gained 338 seats. Laborites hitherto controlled the councils in twenty important cities and boroughs, but in the election yesterday it surrendered eight. In all the London boroughs, Labor now controls only three councils.

Every Labor candidate was defeated in the London boroughs of Paddington, Islington and Brighton. In these three centres the municipal Reformers, or Conservatives, and their allies were returned in sufficient numbers to man the councils. Labor lost its majority in the councils of Battersea, Woolwich and Shoreham, losing twenty-five seats in the latter borough.

Chinese Bandits Hold Missionary

NANKING, Nov. 3 (AP).—United States Consul-General Peck was advised today that Rev. J. W. Vinson, of the American Presbyterian Mission, with headquarters at Nashville, Tenn., was captured last Sunday by bandits thirty miles south of Hallow, Kansas Province.

Peck made representations to the Foreign Office, which assured him it would take all possible steps to effect Mr. Vinson's release.

QUEBEC HOUSE OPENS SESSION

Much Lighter New Taxes Promised in Speech From Throne

QUEBEC, Nov. 3 (CP).—The eighteenth Legislative Assembly of the Province of Quebec met today, opened a speech from the Throne which outlined new legislation, re-appointed Hon. T. D. Bouchard, of St. Hyacinthe, as speaker and adjourned until tomorrow.

A loan will be floated, the proceeds of which will aid the Government in taking care of unemployed grants, work for bridges, highways and colonization and other needs. The speech from the Throne stated. New sources of revenue would be found, but new taxes would be "exceedingly light," the speech, delivered to the assembled members of the upper and lower houses by Hon. H. G. Carroll, Lieutenant-Governor, stated.

The Lieutenant-Governor declared Quebec was perhaps least afflicted by current economic conditions of any province.

DAVIES LAUDS TORCHY PEDEN

Vancouver Bike Rider Says Victoria Boy Unbeatable With Good Partner

VANCOUVER, Nov. 3.—Not yet completely recovered from injuries received in the first couple of hours of the Montreal six-day race, Jim Davies, Vancouver bike rider, arrived home yesterday to rest up until the bikers come to the Pacific Coast again. Davies broke a rib in the early stages of the Montreal grind, and the going was tough for him all the way. He could have stuck it out, he said, but when "Click" Meyers quit, Manager Willie Spencer pulled Jim out as well. Lew Elder, his partner, then teamed up with Bernard Stubecke, the German.

Jim says the veteran riders in the grind stated it was one of the hardest they had ever been in, the teams being very evenly matched with the spirit of rivalry exceptionally keen. Bill (Torchy) Peden, the Victoria giant, rode a great race. Davies states. The Vancouver rider figures "Torchy" is just about unbeatable if he has a good partner.

Spencer's men will next appear in a race at Minneapolis. Al Crowley, the speedy Englishman, will compete in the Chicago race, starting Sunday night. Peden plans to ride in New York after the Minneapolis grind.

Jim Davies says Spencer is certain to come to Vancouver if the Minneapolis race proves a success.

of that force to him during his stay in British Columbia. To Inspector T. W. S. Parsons, who escorted the royal party throughout their stay on the island, was given a gold and enamel set of cuff links bearing the effigy of the Siamese state crown of nine tiers and the royal initials. To the motorcycleists from the provincial force who accompanied the King, Corporal G. W. Donohue and Constable H. Calvert, were given cuff links of silver.

The drivers of the Gray Line who served the King and his party while here, consisting of R. Chester, H. Taylor, M. Powell, G. Mowat, and S. Tubman, were presented by the Consul-General with cash presents.

SIGNED PORTRAITS
Commander Victor G. Brodeur, of H.M.C.S. Skeena, received a signed portrait of His Majesty the King, while the officers of the wardroom of the Skeena received signed portraits of the King and Queen. A present of $100 to the men's sports club of the ship was included among the donations, together with cash presents to the four members of the crew who acted as waiters to the royal party.

The chief, the chief steward and the captain's steward on the ship each received silver cuff links. Miss Jarvis, the manageress of the Qualicum Beach Hotel, received a silver brooch with the King's crown thereon.

REMEMBERED RESIDENTS
Residents of Campbell River, where the King and his party enjoyed such splendid sport, are being remembered in no uncertain way. George Ross, manager of the Bank of Commerce there, benefited, it was learned at the Legislative Buildings yesterday on good authority. The commission which under the chairmanship of Hon. C. F. Davis, Speaker of the Legislature, has spent two years in an intensive study of the subject, will meet at Victoria on November 25 to pass on its final report, now in the hands of the members in draft form.

While the substance of the report cannot be learned until it is presented to the Legislature, it is believed that there exists good ground for the belief that the body will bring in recommendations looking to the establishment of a system of medical aid and hospitalization on the basis of a small annual charge to each contributor.

At its last meeting, early in September, the commission passed on certain major principles on which the final report will be based. These, it is anticipated, will comprise a definite system of state health insurance on a contributory basis. Members of the commission held public hearings in a large number of centres in the province, and in addition assembled an exhaustive file of data on what is being done along analogous lines in other countries. The final recommendations of the commission are expected to be laid before the provincial authorities at an early date.

What Today Means
"SCORE" 3
If November 4 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., from 3:15 p.m. to 7 p.m., and from 10 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. The best periods are from 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 3:40 p.m.

The astrological picture for November 4 is not clearly indicated. You do not seem to be beset with dangers—on the other hand, there are no illuminating stars of good luck shining over your head. It would be advisable to go along the even tenor of your way, and to avoid entering into any disputes. A romantic attachment is shown. The child born on this November 4 is shown to have both reliability and affection. It will be a clear thinker, a plodding worker, a cheerful companion, and a loyal friend. Much humor and gaiety is indicated, and it will "ways try to have a good time through life."

Much energy and enterprise is shown in the horoscope of those born on a November 4. You are a progresser with the times, and the stars of your sign seldom allowed to become cluttered with the rubbish of the past. Your convictions are solid, but are not without elasticity; your ideas are positive and firm, but they are not set. You are along well with your associate because you are both tolerant-minded and understanding. You never place yourself on a saintly pedestal, or attempt a holier-than-thou attitude. The kindness of your speech, the frankness of your nature, and the straightforwardness of your actions, gain you both the love and respect of your friends. You seldom allow your work to get on your nerves; you do your best, and are willing to let things go at that. You do not fuss over details, but you never allow what you consider to be the essentials. You are liberal with your praise and chary with your criticisms. Gossip can seldom be traced to your lips, nor a broken confidence laid to your door. You are capable of very deep feelings, and are not ashamed to show them. You have a natural hunger for your share of love and admiration, and you become depressed when you are left out in the cold. You will be in love with love many times before you die with your life mate.

"Death Valley" Scotty Heads for the Hills
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3 (AP).—"Death Valley" Scotty has closed his $8,000,000 mansion, which he erected in America's most desolate valley, and today was heading for the hills on a two-month prospecting tour.

The grizzled old mining man who usually comes to town with a pocket chuck full of gold nuggets, was here yesterday to get a grubstake, he said, for his prospecting trip.

SEA RETURNS VIAL OF GOLD

Lost by Miner on Coast,
It Is Found After
Many Days

UCLUELET, Nov. 3.—It has been said that the ocean keeps her secrets well, jealously hiding her treasures, but according to a story from a gold miner on the West Coast, near here, the contrary has been established. This strange occurrence happened recently to a miner who was working a claim at Wreck Bay. This bay is situated on the outside coast and at the eastern end of Long Beach.

In order to secure necessary supplies, the miner had worked extremely hard through long hours and bad weather to save enough gold to cover the cost of his immediate needs. With this gold in a small pill-vial, and as he thought it was fairly high and the ceaseless Pacific breakers were pounding in on the shingle beach. One long swell, tumbling in, chased the miner back to the shore where he took shelter behind some large boulders. There, to his great astonishment, was the vial containing the gold. It seemed almost incredible, but there it was, having been at the mercy of huge waves for many days, had been beaten about and finally lodged behind that large boulder and was still unbroken. The ocean is indeed strange, large sea-going ships fall a prey to rough weather, yet such a frail thing as a glass vial will stand the breaking of a rocky shore and remain unbroken.

ALMOST INCREDIBLE
Many days after, having given up all hope of ever finding the gold, he was making his way along the beach. There had been a heavy tide and the sea was rough, the tide was fairly high and the ceaseless Pacific breakers were pounding in on the shingle beach. One long swell, tumbling in, chased the miner back to the shore where he took shelter behind some large boulders. There, to his great astonishment, was the vial containing the gold. It seemed almost incredible, but there it was, having been at the mercy of huge waves for many days, had been beaten about and finally lodged behind that large boulder and was still unbroken. The ocean is indeed strange, large sea-going ships fall a prey to rough weather, yet such a frail thing as a glass vial will stand the breaking of a rocky shore and remain unbroken.

GOVERNMENT'S REGRETS
By formal resolution yesterday the Provincial Executive expressed sincere regret at the loss sustained by British Columbia in the passing of Mr. Matson, for more than forty years a pioneer business man of this community. The Cabinet will extend its condolences in a letter of sympathy to the bereaved.

TRIBUTE FROM COUNCIL
Members of the Victoria City Council, in regular session yesterday morning, suspended business to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Matson. On motion of Alderman R. Williams and John A. Worthington, members of the Council stood in silence, while the vote was placed in the records of the City Hall.

Members of the Council stood in silence, while the vote was placed in the records of the City Hall. The period of silence will be observed in all other branches of the service in Victoria and Up-Island points.

PERIOD OF SILENCE
Out of respect to the memory of Mr. Matson, founder of the Vancouver Island Coach Lines and at the time of his death a director of the company, all coaches operating on Vancouver Island will stop for one minute at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon in a body.

HUMOROUS SITUATION
A general laugh arose when Premier Macdonald and Mr. Lansbury—once colleagues in the Labor Government but now leaders of opposite parties—side by side led the procession to the Bar of the House of Lords. There, in resonant tones, Lord Sankey, the Lord High Chancellor, declared the King's commands in summoning Parliament.

Then, as the Peers proceeded to take their oaths, the Commons took back to their own chamber and re-elected Captain Edward A. Fitzgerald as Speaker. He has held that position since June, 1928, and has sat in the House of Commons for over a quarter of a century.

LEAVES FOR SCOTLAND
Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald today left for Leamouth, where, in the solitude of the quaint Scottish village he will ponder over the political problems of the day. He will not return to London until Monday, but the very fact he left the city has added strength to rumors that formation of the new cabinet has not been easy. It is improbable an announcement concerning cabinet changes will be made until Mr. MacDonald's return. The office that has been the chief stumbling block in the Chancellorship of the Exchequer, it is understood, Chief interest attaches itself to this post, especially in view of the grave economic conditions and of the more or less diversified tariff views of the Government parties.

OPINIONS ARE DIVIDED
A feeling of resentment is growing among some Conservatives, it is understood, at the belief that the Minister is anxious to avoid appointing a strong protectionist like Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, whom Conservatives believe to be the pre-eminent man for the post. The Prime Minister's desire to have Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin as Chancellor, as Chancellor of the Exchequer—a post which Mr. Baldwin has refused—has been attributed to the Conservative leader's milder views on tariffs. When the appointment eventually is made it will provide an excellent indication of the Government's tariff policy—whether low, high or free trade, and that is something which Mr. MacDonald will ponder over in Leamouth between now and next Monday.

Cast Named For Play by Mimes' Guild
"And So to Bed," the story of an incident in the life of Samuel Pepys, will be presented by the Mimes and Masquers' Guild on Friday and Saturday evenings at the Lyric Theatre, beginning at 8 o'clock. The cast is as follows: Samuel Pepys, Les Hardy; Cremona, Julie Martin; Mary, a Pickpurse, Dan Macdonald; Watch, Harry Dee; Jackie, Cleaver; Margaret, Marion; Mrs. Pierce, Kay MacKenzie; Mrs. Knapp, Hetherington; Lettice, Elma Barr; Charles II, Bert Bailey; Prodiges, Hugh Cremona.

Associate members' tickets and tickets for the general public are going well, and it is expected that this, the first presentation of the guild this season, will attract a large audience.

Musical Arts
Concert to Be This Evening
Owing to the length of the first item on the Musical Arts Club programme, to take place tonight at the Shrine auditorium, the doors will be closed at 8 o'clock and the concert between the beginning and the end of this number. The programme will commence at 8:15 o'clock.

At the next regular meeting of the City Council, Alderman R. T. Williams will move two motions, one dealing with a request for a financial statement and the other concerning a referendum to the ratepayers on the $25,000 grant to the Publicity Bureau.

Ald. R. T. Williams To Ask for Civic Financial Report
At the next regular meeting of the City Council, Alderman R. T. Williams will move two motions, one dealing with a request for a financial statement and the other concerning a referendum to the ratepayers on the $25,000 grant to the Publicity Bureau. Mr. Williams' motions are as follows: "That a financial statement for this year, as nearly up to date as possible, be published in our daily papers for the guidance and general information of the ratepayers, so that all citizens may be properly informed previous to the election in December," and, "That the matter of continuing the $25,000 payment to the Publicity Bureau be placed before the ratepayers during the election in December, so that those who foot the bill may have the say if this payment is to be made during next year, or if it is to be discontinued."

Relief Employees Get Three Weeks a Month Instead of Four

Owing to the large number of registrations of married unemployed men, the public works committee of the City Council has found it impossible to keep all the men working five days a week, and therefore 250 men will be laid off the present gang and a like number substituted from the waiting list.

This policy was decided at the meeting of the City Council yesterday morning, when the question of relief employment came up for discussion, which resulted in the adoption of the recommendation of the public works committee.

MANY ON REGISTER
Under the new arrangements all men on the register will be given three weeks' work every month, but if registrations continue the working period will have to be reduced accordingly, the committee reported. Between 700 and 800 unemployed married men have registered for relief work, aside from a large number of single men, and the problem of caring for all is becoming a serious one for the city. The council is anxious to obtain some definite understanding from the two Governments regarding the amount to be appropriated to the city for relief work and until that is received, the council, the Mayor stated, would have to work in the dark with reference to future undertakings.

QUESTIONS PURCHASE
In connection with unemployment, the council received communications from the Federal Government's representative in British Columbia concerning the recently awarded contract to a British firm to supply waterworks valves. The representative directed the attention of the council to the provisions of the Unemployment Relief Act, which prohibits the purchase of materials outside of the Dominion where the Federal Government is to contribute a portion of the cost of such materials.

The purchase in question was a large type of valve for use in connection with the installation of a thirty-six-inch water main. Tenders on the valves were called, and the lowest was from a British manufacturer, $17,000, the lowest Canadian bid being $17,000. The order was given to the British firm. Mayor Herbert Hancock informed the council that, without the Federal Government contribution to the cost, the city would be saving approximately $5,000 on the purchase.

BUSINESS BLOCK CHANGES HANDS
Col. De Mossin Disposes of Property on Government Street to Private Buyer
The block occupied on the ground floor by the brokerage firm of Logan & Bryan has again changed ownership.

The new purchaser of the property is Commodore F. A. Lindsay, of Rutland Road, Uplands. This property situated on the south-west corner of Government and Bastion Streets, was rebuilt some time ago by the brokerage firm of Miller, Court & Company. Later it was acquired by Colonel De Mossin for the Victoria Homes & Gardens, Ltd., and now the property again changes hands, passing to Commodore Lindsay. The property is well situated and is fully occupied. The ground floor is leased to Logan & Bryan, while the second story is occupied by private offices.

WORKROOM NEEDS FOUND PRESSING
Generous Donations Acknowledged at Meeting Last Night, but Constant Funds Required
At a special meeting last night of the Unemployed Women's Workroom Committee, the matter of ways and means received particular consideration in view of the pressing need of funds to carry on the work. Despite generous help from individual friends, the drain on the resources is continuous, about $50 a day being required to run the workroom, and a steady source of income must become assured if the undertaking is to be a success.

The treasurer reported a balance on hand of about $465, and a long list of donations was gratefully acknowledged. From the sale of made-up new and old materials, approximately $100 had been realized. The sum of $221.20 was realized from the Rev. G. O. Falls lecture at the theatre recently. The ways and means committee offered several suggestions. A rummage sale will be held on Saturday, November 14. An appeal was issued for clothes and other articles for the occasion. The distribution committee reported that thirty-one articles made in the workroom had been sent to the Victorian Order of Nurses, and thirty-nine to the Children's Aid. Another parcel is to be sent to each of these organizations this week. Mrs. Peden was appointed convener of a special workroom committee which will control all work.

CUMBERLAND EAGLES HELD TO 1-1 DRAW
CUMBERLAND, Nov. 3.—The Cumberland Eagles soccer eleven, last year's provincial junior champions, who went right through the season without tasting defeat, dropped a point in their first game of the present season when the Courtenay Bays managed to make a draw, one goal each, on the Recreation Ground, Sunday.

SECOND LECTURE GREAT SUCCESS

G. J. Brown Gives Illustrated Address on Trip From Paris to Riviera

More than three hundred people last night attended the second of the series of travelogue lectures being presented by G. J. Brown in the First United Church, and the increase in the number present over that of last week shows clearly the growing popularity of these addresses.

Mr. Brown took his audience on an imaginary trip from Paris to the French Riviera, visiting Cannes, Nice, Monte Carlo and many of the less important cities along the way, returning to the battlefields of Northern France and Belgium where row after row of well-kept graves mark the last resting place of those who died during the great crisis of 1914.

Leaving this once-devastated area, the lecturer next took his audience to Germany, pausing at Cologne and several of the castles and towns along the Rhine just long enough to give a brief outline of their enchanting history before hastening to Châlis and thence to Dover.

After a short excursion to most of the principal cities of England, Windsor, Castle and Canterbury Cathedral were visited, and all present were held spellbound by the magnificence of the home of the great cathedral, Mr. Brown compared its dimensions with that of Christ Church in this city and stated that it was well worthy of a place among the fine old buildings of the Western world.

WHEAT POOL TO OPERATE PLANT

Alberta Interests Given Approval by Council to Lease Victoria Elevator

Golden grain from the Western Prairies will flow through Victoria's terminal elevator for another year, providing employment for an additional number of men in the import and export trade.

At a regular meeting of the City Council yesterday, approval was given for the lease of the terminal plant to the Alberta Wheat Pool until September, 1932, at a rental of $25,000 for the period. Negotiations for the lease of the elevator have been in progress between the Panama Pacific Grain Terminal, Ltd., and the Alberta Wheat Pool for the past six weeks, with a time limit for the acceptance of the offer fixed at midnight last night.

EARLY OPERATIONS
Approval of the lease was transmitted to the Pool officials by telegram yesterday afternoon, and early wheat receipts are expected by the local officials. Upwards of 1,000,000 bushels of grain passed through the terminal during the 1930-31 season.

Under the terms of an agreement between the elevator company and the Corporation of Victoria, an amount of $31,944 is carried as outstanding against the company. This amount will be reduced to $6,944 by the payment of $25,000 to the city treasurer. Of the $6,944, $5,000 is due the city in bonus, $944 insurance and $1,000 as land rental to the Federal government. These items it is understood, will be adjusted by the company as soon as the lease is signed.

While the lease figure is not as high as last year by approximately $10,000, members of the council considered it good business to approve of the lower rental in order to guarantee immediate operation of the plant.

The Measure of Our Responsibility

THE Trust Companies of Canada are the nation's second largest financial body. They have clients' assets of more than two thousand millions of dollars in their care and under their management.

The responsibility is so great and the scope of their services so wide that it is felt that the public should know what Trust Companies are authorized and equipped to do and how they function.

It has been decided, therefore, to publish a series of advertisements (of which this is the first), giving this information clearly and concisely.

It is hoped that what is said will be interesting enough to provoke inquiry and that if you are not now availing yourself of some department of a Trust Company's activities, you may decide to do so.

Nature of Trust Companies' Services

Trust Companies are trustees. They manage and safeguard the property and interests of their clients. Looking after personal estates is the greater part of their work.

For personal estates Trust Companies:

- (a) Act as executors and trustees under wills and trust deeds.
- (b) Manage property for persons during their lifetime under trusts or agency agreements—marriage settlements, financial agencies, powers of attorney, and so on.

Under Court appointment administer property of those leaving no will.

To do these services Trust Companies:

- 1. Invest money in mortgages and other trustee securities, stocks and bonds.
- 2. Manage Investments, collect dividends, clip coupons.
- 3. Manage real estate, buy, sell or lease property, attend to insurance, repairs and renting.
- 4. Attend to general matters of estate management, such as income tax returns, insurance and succession duties.
- 5. Rent safe deposit boxes for securities and valuables.

Trust companies act also in positions of trust for Corporations and firms.

From this summary it will be seen that Trust Companies act in a great variety of positions of trust—that is, not in their own interests, but in those of their clients. Property management has become specialized. Trust Companies are equipped with their experience and trained staffs and their financial responsibility to do this work promptly in an up-to-date manner.

Col. Lorne Ross Tells British Campaigners of Purpose of Body

The first of regular monthly luncheons, to be held on the first Tuesday of each month at 12:10 o'clock in Spencer's dining-room, was held yesterday, when about seventy-five members of the British Campaigners' Branch of the Canadian Legion, a recently formed service club, gathered for an informal meeting, with Colonel Lorne Ross presiding.

The plans for the future were outlined to the gathering by the chairman, who explained that the luncheons would be purely informal affairs and would be held merely to renew old acquaintances. When speakers were chosen, their subjects would deal with anything but war, he said.

Sir Percy Lake, in a brief address, spoke of the campaign that is now being carried on jointly by the Armistice Period committee and the Red Cross committee. He said that these organizations were anxious to have Remembrance Day observed as a public holiday and asked those present to attend the memorial service at the Cenotaph on November 11, at 11 o'clock in the morning. Support of the Poppy Day this coming Saturday was also urged by the speaker.

REQUIRES SUPPORT
In discussing the work that is done by the combined organizations, Sir Percy asserted that ex-servicemen are confronted with many problems which are not remedied by unemployment relief committees, and it was to these men that help was administered. There was only about $400 on hand at the present time to carry out the work, thus indicating that the campaign required good support, he said.

Following the addresses, excellent lantern slides of scenes around the Forbidden Plateau were shown by Claude L. Harrison, who spoke of the grandeur of that area. Mr. Harrison stated that proper care was not being taken of Vancouver Island's timber lands, particularly around the Courtenay and Comox River districts.

The advantage of preserving such natural beauty spots for tourist attractions was stressed by Mr. Harrison. Roads could be built into the area at comparatively small cost, he said, and the tourist benefit would be large.

VOTE OF THANKS
A hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. Harrison by the chairman, and he was asked to come before the club again and show some of his other pictures of Vancouver Island. Among those sitting at the head table were Sir Percy Lake, Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown, Col. T. E. Harrison, Brigadier-General A. Ogilvie, Commander R. I. Agnew, R.N.; Major J. G. Smith, Captain H. D. Twigg, M.P.P.; Col. H. T. Goodland, Captain Corey Wood, Col. L. Drum, Col. R. Napier, W. G. Stone and Col. Lorne Ross.

ARE QUALIFYING FOR LEADERSHIP

Twenty Young People of First United Attend Training School
—Debate Series Opens

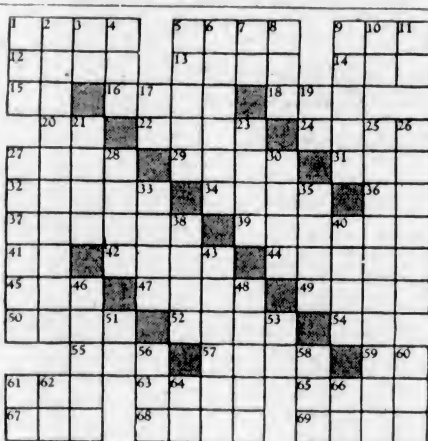

About twenty members of the Young People's Society of First United Church are participating in the Religious Training School with a view to qualifying as leaders in young people's work, according to an announcement made at the weekly meeting of the First United Young People's Society on Monday. Archie Miller, first vice-president, was the chairman.

The feature of the evening was the first of a series of debates which are to be held during the winter. The subject was: "He it resolved that the world is getting better," with the Eagles, represented by Bill Pindley and Dick Holmes taking the affirmative, and the Volunteers, represented by Miss Ruth Lewis and Miss Mary Leith, the negative. Alderman W. T. Strath, Fred McGregor and N. W. Whitaker acted as judges, and awarded the decision to the Volunteers. Mr. Whitaker, as spokesman for the judges, commented on the material and their delivery of the same. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the judges. The devotional period was taken by Miss Dorothy Morton, who spoke on the subject of "Courage," quoting Herodotus' "Invictus," and stressing the need for courage in everyday life.

George Gordon asked for six young ladies to volunteer their assistance in the work of Poppy Day, Saturday, November 7, and the request was heartily endorsed by the society. During the evening the following enjoyable musical numbers were rendered: Piano solo, Miss Elsie Friend; vocal solos, Miss Peggy Allen, and violin solos, Miss Vetch. The chairman expressed the thanks of the society to the artists.

ARCHDEACON GIVES ADDRESS
DUNCAN, Nov. 3.—Archdeacon H. A. Collock addressed the members of the United Church Young People's League on Monday evening, November 10, when plans will be made for future programmes.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs due to cold. It takes but a moment to prepare, costs little, and saves money, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that follow severe cold epidemics. From any drugist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 10 oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make 16 ounces of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it. Not only does this simple mixture soothe the inflamed throat membrane with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the greenish phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, containing the active agent of cressonite, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs and bronchial irritations. Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

VARSLITY BRINGING STRONG GRID TEAM HERE

Ottawa Players to Strengthen Detroit Falcons' Ice Squad

Acquisition of Hec Kilrea, Alex Connell, Alex Smith and Danny Cox Expected to Make Team Formidable Contender This Season

(This is the second of a series of stories on the prospects of National Hockey League teams.)

DETROIT, Nov. 3 (AP).—One of those things managers dream about came true for Jack (Smiling Jack) Adams this year, as a result of the veteran manager of the Detroit Falcons National League Hockey Club is admitting cheerfully that "prospects look real good."

Far down in the standings last year, Adams' club faced this season with little better prospects. Few good hockey players were available at the price Adams could offer or for that matter at any price.

Then the Ottawa team broke up and four star hockey players—just the ones Adams wanted—fell right into "Smiling Jack's" lap, duty free. The players, Hec Kilrea, one of hockey's fastest wing men; Alex Connell, goalie; and Alex Smith, star defense man, bolstered the Falcons' weakest spots. Danny Cox, who plays either center or wing, will be used as second or third line man.

GOOD SCORING LINE

Adams believes he has a squad that will get an even break at the top notch Boston Bruins. His first forward line, Carson Cooper and Eddie Goodfellow, for whom the Detroit club turned down an offer of $50,000 from Boston, should rank high again in the scoring column.

Last year he was second in the league standings.

For his second forward line Adams had Herbie Lewis, Tommy Flinnore and Johnny Sorrell of last year's squad, and in the third line Cox and Larry Aurie, the latter one of last season's fighting forwards.

may team with Bert McInerney, spare defense man, who also plays on the forward line. Smith probably will be teamed with Reg Noble, veteran defense man at the guard positions. Spare defense men are Frank Peters and Doug Young, the former obtained from the New York Rangers, and the latter from the Cleveland minor league team.

The Falcons open the season here November 12 with the New York Rangers.

"For the first time," says Adams, "I think we're going to the barker with an even break."

CHARLIE CONACHER SIGNS WITH LEAFS

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Nov. 3 (CP).—Charlie Conacher, sharpshooter of the Toronto Maple Leafs hockey team of the National Hockey League and brother of Lionel Conacher, versatile athlete, has signed for the season, Manager Conny Smythe announced tonight.

The announcement came after disclosure that Conacher had been married last August. News of the marriage only crept out today. With Conacher lined up, Smythe has his entire team ready for the opening of the winter campaign in Toronto, November 12. The Leafs will be ready to step on the ice in Toronto next Monday.

When the Ramsgate, England, lifesaving station recently celebrated its centenary it was announced that crews there had saved 1,346 lives.

JUNIOR RUGBY GAME PROTESTED

Edmonton Club Disputing Victory of Calgary in Provincial Final

CALGARY, Nov. 3 (CP).—Officials of the Alberta Rugby Union here were still in the dark today regarding the protest made by Edmonton Eskimo Rugby Club as a result of the provincial junior final in Calgary on Saturday, when Calgary Altomah-Tigers defeated the northern city.

In the first game at Edmonton the Eskimos won 19-1, but Calgary overcame the lead Saturday by a score of 28-4, taking the round and the title by 29 to 23.

President Andy Nasmith, of the Alberta Rugby Union, today stated that he had been informed of the Edmonton protest but no reasons for the step had been given.

Conferred on long distance telephone today with officials of the Edmonton club but was unable to obtain any reasons for the protest, he said. "I have extended the time limit for a protest until tomorrow morning to permit Edmonton to present its case," he added.

The time limit ended yesterday according to the forty-eight-hour rule.

FIRST GRID TILT BILLED FOR TODAY

V.A.C. and Calgary Tigers Will Meet in Opening Encounter

BURLEY WILL GIVE YOUNGSTERS CHANCE

VANCOUVER, Nov. 3.—Del Finlay, local sports writer, who is accompanying the Vancouver Athletic Club Rugby team to Calgary, where it meets the Altomah-Tigers tomorrow in the first game of the Western Canada title series, tonight sent the following dispatch from Field, B.C.

"Youth gets its fling on the Hillhurst Park gridiron on Wednesday afternoon. Norm Burley, coach of the V.A.C. Rugby team, will give the two youngsters of his squad, Ed Kendall and Bill Merritt, the call over veterans, as the Coast team starts the first of its two-game total points series with Calgary Altomah-Tigers."

"Kendall will go into the half line with Cokie Shields and Sonny Brington. Shields will be at centre half, with Kendall at left half. Tommy Moore's injured finger is keeping him out of the line-up."

MACKENZIE INJURED

"Bill Merritt goes into inside wing to replace Don Mackenzie. Mackenzie's injured knee isn't considered fit to play on yet, and Burley will start Merritt, who has had two senior games, in his place."

Kendall, too, has played but twice in senior, but Burley figures both men are capable of filling the posts he's given them.

"Although a little train weary, the Coast boys haven't felt any ill effects of their long trip to the Prairies. They've been of the train passing balls around at every stop to take the cramped feeling out of their limbs."

"They very nearly lost a ball in Shushwap Lake at Sicamous this morning, startled revels with a signal practice at noon, and limbered up with a snowball fight at Glacier."

U.B.C. Will Meet Locals in Final Big Four Fixture

Last Game of Season Will Be Played at Royal Athletic Park Saturday Afternoon at 2:30 o'Clock

—Victoria Needs Victory to Assure Second-Place Berth

Varsity Bringing Twenty-Four Men

Canadian Rugby will bow itself off the calendar Saturday afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park when Coach Doug Roberts and his Victoria squad battle the University of British Columbia in the final fixture of the season on the "Big Four" schedule at 2:30 o'clock. Although there is nothing at stake, the teams will be in three fighting with all the courage and stamina they possess for the glory of victory.

The Vancouver Athletic Club, champions of the league, are already on the Prairies waiting to battle for the Western Canada title. Victoria are resting comfortably in second place and will be out to strengthen their position as the curtain is lowered for 1931. The local lads lost their chance for the "Big Four" crown when they dropped the verdict to the Vacs in the first game of the year.

After that loss, the Victoria team proved to be the big siege gun of the loop, knocking over all opposition. They defeated the New Westminster Dodekads and then smashed their way to a great victory over Meralomas, 14-6, after a brilliant display of line bucking and forward passing. Varsity is not coming here with a weak line-up by any means.

MARINE and TRANSPORTATION

Storage Capacity Of Port Elevators Nearly Exhausted

Wheat Rolling Westward to Mainland Terminals by Trainload—Eight Hundred Cars Pass Through Kamloops in One Day

VANCOUVER, Nov. 3 (CP).—Two hundred carloads of wheat have been pouring into Vancouver daily during the past week or ten days, and the port's storage capacity is nearing its limit. Elevators are nearly all full.

Sufficient ships are arriving to meet the flow of grain, but if the grain shipments increase or the number of ships fall off, the present railway activity will not continue, it is stated.

The increased freight movement has proved a boon to railway workers, but transportation officials warn that it may fluctuate. It is stated that more men are employed today on the railway divisions in British Columbia than for some time. A Kamloops report states that the spare boards of both roads are almost exhausted at times.

IMPROVED CONDITION
The railway figures point to a greatly improved condition. Kamloops reports that in one day 800 cars passed through for Vancouver on both roads. On the corresponding day in 1930, only 250 cars passed. One day, a week ago, there were 3,543 cars of grain headed west, as compared with 1,112 on the same day a year ago.

Vancouver Merchants' Exchange monthly grain report shows 10,115,000 bushels shipped up to October 31, as compared with 15,817,627 bushels at the same date in 1930. This year's movement is slow in starting, but it is believed there will be a heavy late-season export.

CARGO RATES STIFFEN
While the actual exports are lower, the receipts from railways are believed to be higher, as there are some millions more bushels in store.

United States Shipping Interests Will Urge Withdrawal of Restrictions

SEATTLE, Nov. 3 (AP).—Withdrawal of Canadian restrictions against United States shipping operating in Canadian waters, will be urged upon the Canadian Government, a group of business men decided today.

The Chamber of Commerce, in announcing the proposal, said the restrictions prevent the entry of United States vessels at non-customs ports of entry in British Columbia, while Canadian vessels are permitted entry in similar ports in the United States.

J. J. Underwood, manager of the chamber's office at Washington, D.C., was authorized to negotiate with the Canadian Government to cancel the restrictions, and if unsuccessful, to ask the aid of President Hoover.

LINER FULL DAY BEHIND

President Madison Due This Afternoon—Freighters Leave With Lumber

Just a little more than a day behind her schedule, the President Madison, American Mail Line trans-Pacific liner, will reach William Head Quarantine Station at 12:30 o'clock today, according to a wireless message received from the master of the ship by M. Allan, local agent of the company, late yesterday afternoon. This should bring the ship up alongside Rithet Piers about 1:30 o'clock. Following the disembarking of passengers and the discharge of general freight and mails here, the President Madison will proceed to Seattle.

Arriving here over the week-end to lift 600,000 feet of lumber, the freighter Golden Eagle left Oxyden Point Piers at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Port Alberni to complete for Australian ports.

Mainland points, the Golden Eagle brought over a million feet of lumber and 500 tons of general cargo. About 600,000 feet of lumber will be loaded at Port Alberni.

Reaching Oxyden Point Piers yesterday morning, the freighter Norge was due to leave with lumber cargo for Atlantic coast ports last night.

Cargo for this ship, which was to have been supplied by a Fraser River mill, was loaded at Vancouver and Victoria.

PENSIONS BOARD
NOW IN SESSION
Dominion Body Holding Sittings in Victoria—To Hear Twenty-Five
Soldier Applications

Upwards of twenty-five applications concerning war pensions are to be heard by the Dominion Pensions Tribunal now in session in Victoria. The board commenced sittings in the Court of Appeal at the Court House on Monday morning, and will continue until all cases are disposed of, after which the tribunal will move to Nanaimo for hearings there.
The Dominion body is composed of Brigadier-General H. F. Mc-Donald and Captain E. C. Mc-Kenzie. A. N. Daykin and T. J. Mc-Kenzie are acting as counsel for the tribunal, and Dr. F. H. Mayhew, of Calgary, is the medical adviser.
Four cases were considered yesterday, and among the witnesses
were the following local doctors:
Dr. T. H. Miller, Dr. M. W. Thomas,
Dr. A. E. McKicking, Dr. John
Stewart, Dr. J. D. Hunter and Dr.
A. W. Montague.
The tribunal reserved decision in the cases of R. E. Lawrence and Frank Hopkins, allowed a pension to Matthew Love. The fourth case was that of Mrs. W. Miller to withdraw her pension application because of the death of her husband.

At the Playhouses

GEORGE ARLISS
IN LOVE STORY

Famous English Actor Stars in
"Alexander Hamilton" at Dominion Theatre

"Alexander Hamilton," the Warner Bros. drama starring George Arlliss which comes to the Dominion Theatre today, does not dwell on the brilliant statesmanship of the financial genius of the first Secretary of the Treasury—but on the common humanity which made him
the dupe, temporarily, of one of the cleverest adventuresses of all time—
Mary Reynolds.
Indirectly this fascinating woman influenced the brilliant leader who at the time was largely responsible for the future of the republic.
To clear himself from false
charges of dishonesty Hamilton frankly laid bare his part in the Reynolds affair, leaving judgment to men whom he knew were like passions with himself. This is one of the most dramatic scenes of the absorbing play—which gives Mr.
Arlliss his most superb role.

PLAYHOUSE
THEATRE
Natalie Moorhead, "blonde of the Tennessee" of the talk-ies, was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., and first went to Hollywood with one of Henry Duff's stock companies. She is featured in "Divorce Among Friends," a Warner Bros. and Vitaphone production with Irene Delroy, James Hall and Lew Cody, at the Playhouse Theatre.

COLUMBIA Ten years in theatrical stock made a bad man out of Boris Karloff, now appearing with Regis
Toomey, Sue Carol and Dorothy Rever at the Columbia Theatre in Universal's newspaper drama
"Graft." On the stage Karloff almost invariably appeared in villains roles, and when he came to the screen ten years ago was already established as a deep-dyed scoundrel. And he has played such roles ever since.

CAPITOL Those who relish a THEATRE hearty laugh—or rather a whole crowd
of laughs—have a rare opportunity to gratify their taste in "A Warm Corner," now at the Capitol Theatre. "A Warm Corner" scintillates with mirthful situations and witty lines, handled by the greatest of British comedy players, Leslie Henson, while its rapid action and constantly changing and often elaborate sets, add to the general brightness.

CAPITOL Warren William and THEATRE Alan Mowbray, Warner-
First National screen favorites, devoted eight weeks to the sword practice preparing for the duel that is a dramatic high spot of "The Honor of the Family,"
current picture at the Capitol Theatre. Bebe Daniels is featured in this feature, which is a modernized version of Balzac's famous melodramatic comedy.

THIRTEEN IS PROVING LUCKY FOR DUMB BELLS
Thirteen may be unlucky for some,
but not to the Dumbbells. Their thirteenth annual revue bids fair to prove the luckiest and most successful.

ful of their long career before the Canadian public. Their season, now well under way, has proved a regular series of packed houses and delightful audiences.

Captain Plunkett's latest production has been aptly titled "You Were," conveying in that snappy military term the good news that it is an all-time hit. The play, which was in France and as they were during those first never-to-be-forgotten years as a full-fledged theatrical company in Canada.
The Dumbbells will present their latest offering at the Royal Victoria Theatre for three days, commencing Monday night, when they will undoubtedly duplicate the ovation which has been accorded them in other cities on their triumphant march across Canada.

REV. E. F. CHURCH TO LECTURE ON FRIDAY

A short, but attractive musical programme has been arranged in connection with the lecture "Ghosts and Goblins," which will be given by Rev. E. F. Church in Metropolitan United Church on Friday evening. Edward Parsons will open the programme with an organ recital, to be followed with vocal solos by Mrs. Arthur Dowell, soprano, and James J. Matheson, baritone. All of these talented artists are popular with Victoria audiences. B. C. Nicholas has kindly consented to act as chairman for the evening.

Cumberland Has Little Business
For Its Council

CUMBERLAND, Nov. 3.—There was very little business before the city fathers at the regular council meeting Monday night, with His Worship Mayor Maxwell presiding and Aldermen J. Ledingham, J.
Williams, W. Henderson, W. P.
Symons and D. Bannerman present.
A delegation consisting of Messrs.
T. Armstrong and M. Brown waited on the council with reference to the agreement re the soldier settlement houses. The mayor pointed out that the council at present could do nothing in the matter until the department handling this particular phase of soldier settlement had been communicated with.
Reports of committees were tendered and showed all departments to be in good condition, with the chairman of the board of works reporting that the public works department would repair the holes in the city streets at the first opportunity.

CONTRACTORS GET TIME EXTENSION

Nanaimo Must Wait Two Weeks Longer for Ornamental Light
Standards for Streets

NANAIMO, Nov. 3.—At the regular meeting of the council last evening a letter was received from J. F.
Archer, contractor for the new ornamental street lighting system, who informed the council that the standards for the lights could not be delivered by the local foundry to permit the contract to be finished by November 15, so he asked for a two weeks' extension of time. On motion, the request was granted.

An invitation to the Mayor and council to attend the Remembrance Day service on November 11 was accepted and as many as can attend will do so.

A communication was received from A. J. Towell, who informed the council the city teachers had voted 5 per cent of their salaries, with the proviso that the money be spent on unemployment relief only.

A letter was received from P. C.
Abel, secretary of the British Columbia Safety League, asking for the usual contribution of $50. The matter was referred to the finance committee to report back on.

A petition from property owners was received for the installation of the ornamental lighting system
from Bastion Street Bridge to Front Street, and from Bastion Street to Dallas Square.

Fire Chief Parkin reported, for the month of October, nine fires,
the total loss being $505.
Land Sale By-Laws Nos. 495 and 496 passed their third readings.

That Body of Yours
By James W. Barton, M.D.

YOUNG FOLKS AND GOLF
You are reading frequently about fifteen and sixteen-year-old boys who are making real reputations as golfers. It is not unusual to find boys still in their teens in the front for a championship prize.

Now there is nothing wrong with this. A boy can't make himself a golfer without training himself to do as he was instructed, to remain calm and self-controlled and to learn to take the disappointments that come when he is the least bit
"off" his game.
However, I'm just wondering if these boys are playing enough of the other games of youth, men-like football or soccer, where they must measure strength, speed and skill against opponents; where they must learn to get thrown to the ground, must take hard knocks, must learn to play on the line
when they'd like to play half or full back, but learn to control the temper when they receive hard knocks. In other words, at a time when they are enthused, excited,
worked up to the feverish point,
they must behave themselves as real men should behave.

What is the result of playing
such games?
The boy becomes an all round common sense average man in the community. He has learned that he has certain rights and he sees to it that he gets them. He has learned that the other fellow, his neighbor, likewise has certain rights and is entitled to them, and his sense of fairness, developed by play, keeps him from interfering with the rights of his neighbor.

He learns to take his knocks, the disappointments of life, not perhaps with a smile always, but with the knowledge that he has received knocks before, and that they come to everybody. During these knocks or reverses he steadies himself to-cause he knows that steadiness,
not flight of temper or emotion,
is what he needs at this time.
My thought is this, that golf is a splendid game and it is rather a good idea to learn to play when young if possible, so as to get the natural swing or rhythm. Golf will then be a joy when one becomes middle-aged or elderly.
However if golf and golf only is the only me to be played by young boys, I think it is a mistake,
as many of the necessary lessons
of life will be lost if other games,
group games, are not played also.
Plans have definitely been abandoned for the removal of 5,000,000 refugees from Yangtze flooded districts in China and Manchuria.
The Viceroy of India and members of his council have voluntarily reduced their salaries 20 and 15 per cent, respectively.

* Raw, Raspy Throat! * It's a Sign, says Noted Specialist... * of Trouble Here * Eat Yeast *

GOT HIM BY THE THROAT! It's probably because he let intestinal fatigue weaken his resistance. DR. JOSEF SORGO, specialist of famous Rainer Hospital, Vienna, says: "Yeast keeps intestines clean... strengthens resistance to colds, etc." POISONS that breed here make you susceptible to colds, sore throat, etc. YEAST cleanses the system, fortifies against sore throat.

Watch out for that SORE THROAT!

If you catch cold easily... if you're subject to nasty sore throats and coughs... it's usually a sign of some underlying bodily disorder that needs attention!
This disorder is very often a common one that afflicts nearly everyone now and then. It's usually that old, disagreeable trouble... Intestinal Fatigue!
Internal stagnation is the price we pay for rich foods and "soft" living. It gives rise to poisons that spread throughout the system. These poisons undermine vitality... weaken resistance... make us easy marks for headaches, sore throats, colds, etc.
Then why not strike out at these troubles by correcting their chief underlying cause? There is a proved and very simple way, you know...
It's a sign of a badly deranged condition of your system that may be due to INTESTINAL FATIGUE...
Here's what you need, physicians say a method recommended by leading medical practitioners throughout the world.
This sensible method is to eat Fleischmann's fresh Yeast regularly three times a day. Yeast is a food with the amazing power of keeping the system internally clean.
Added to your daily diet, fresh yeast softens accumulated waste matter in the intestines. It also "tones" and strengthens the sluggish intestinal muscles, helping them carry these wastes away promptly, naturally—completely.
Just as the famous Vienna specialist, Dr. Josef Sorgo, says, "Fresh yeast, unlike violent laxatives, will gently restore normal bowel action. Thus, by keeping the intestines open, it enables the system to resist colds and catarrhs."
And remember, Fleischmann's Yeast builds up your resistance in another way. It is the richest known food substance in vitamins B and G and the remarkable "sunshine" vitamin D! Every cake of Fleischmann's Yeast contains these three indispensable vitamins.
So try this winter to avoid at least one common cause of those awful sore throats and colds. Just drop in at any grocery store, or at a restaurant, drug store or soda fountain and get a supply of Fleischmann's Yeast today.
And eat it faithfully, three cakes a day, one cake before each meal, or between meals and at bedtime. Eat it just plain or dissolved in a third of a glass of water (hot or cold), in milk or milk drinks, or any other way you like. Keep it up, and notice how much less susceptible you are to colds and infections—how much peppier and more alert you feel.
Remember, it's important to insist on Fleischmann's Yeast, in the foil package with the yellow label. It's fresh yeast, the kind famous doctors recommend. Why not start eating it now?
Eat 3 cakes a day!

Domestic Stocks Show Strength at Eastern Markets

Late Profit-Taking Knocks Off Part of Gains—
Interested Issues Quiet Due to New York
Exchange Being Closed—Mines
Advance at Toronto

MONTREAL, Nov. 3 (CP).—The Montreal Stock Exchange continued to improve its position today in a session which was decidedly firm but lacked the buoyant aspect of yesterday. A degree of profit-taking entered the market, particularly in the Canadian issues, which had taken the lion's share of the recent advance.

With New York markets closed the local exchange was left to its own devices. The increase in value began early and continued until the afternoon when profit-taking set in. The close was steady. Total sales were 22,000 shares, bond sales $3,800.

Mansey-Harris, the active leader, mounted to 6 1/2, but eased to close at 5 1/2, off 1-3/4 on the day. Canada Ceymum advanced to 6, but closed at 5 7/8, up 3-8. Cockshutt closed at 6 7/8, off 1-8, after touching 7 1/8 on the day's peak. Canada Cement preferred declined 2 points to 76.

Other closing figures included Abitibi, up 1-2 at 3 1/2; Alberta grain, up 1-2 at 1 1/2; Canada Car, up 1-4 at 9 1/2; the preferred, up 1 at 10; Canadian Traction, off 1-8 at 12; Dominion Steel "B," up 1-4 at 4; General Steel Wares, off 1-4 at 3 1/4; Nickel, unchanged at 10 3/4; Canadian Pacific, 1-4 higher at 17 1/4; Canadian Industrial Alcohol, up 5-8 at 2 1/2; Lake of the Woods, 1-4 higher at 9 1/4; Winnipeg Electric, 1-2 higher at 8 1/2.

Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines earnings for the third quarter of this year showed a sharp increase over those of the preceding quarter. Total production for the three months ended September 30, 1931, had a value of $2,764,317, which compares with $2,249,345 in the preceding quarter and with $2,613,342 in the first quarter of 1931. Net profit for the quarter was $1,083,569, compared with $520,523 in the preceding quarter and $882,946 in the first quarter of the year.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE. TORONTO, Nov. 3 (CP).—Domestic issues surged upward today on the Toronto Stock Exchange while interlisted stocks were relatively inactive. Activity was especially noticeable in issues in which the minimum price restriction was lifted yesterday. Turnover totaled 30,890 shares, involving 700 lots of which 37 were higher at the close, only 6 lower and 36 unchanged.

Brazilian was unchanged, Canadian Pacific advanced 1-2, Ford was up 1-8 and Abitibi gained 1-2 to 3 1/2. With a somewhat erratic wheat market, the advance in agricultural implement issues wavered. Cockshutt lost 1-8 and Mansey-Harris closed unchanged, after touching 6 1/4.

It was announced by the stock exchange that the following additional stocks have been added to the free trading list: Benard and Cordage preferred, Hamilton Cotton, Service Stations preferred, Edmonton City Dairy and Canadian Bakeries.

The beverage list was strong. Rumors that the Walker report will make a better showing than was earlier expected gave the stock a strong tone. It closed at 4 with a net gain of 1-8. Distillers-Segrams closed at 8 1/2, up 1-2.

Canadian Car, at 9 5/8, was up 1-2; General Steel Wares, at 3 1/4, was up 1-4; and Steel of Canada added 1-4 to close at 22 1/2. Featuring the oil section was

WHEAT PRICES SHOW REACTION

Profit Taking Starts Slump at Winnipeg After New Peak Is Reached

WINNIPEG, Nov. 3 (CP).—Prices lost their footing in a sense of selling on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, but later came back to regain the greater part of earlier losses. Closing quotations, however, showed losses of 13-4 to 11-4, the first significant decline in three weeks.

November finished 13-4 lower at 88-5-8; December 15-8 at 88-1-2 to 88-5-8; and May 13-8 to 11-4 at 72 to 72-1-2.

The market opened in a burst of trading and prices shot up to new high levels for these futures. Unsteadiness by subsequent profit-taking and hesitant buying prices began to weaken, until selling became so heavy earlier advances were wiped out and quotations sold down about four cents. There appeared to be systematic buying by some of the larger interests which, however, were unable to cope with the spurt of profit-taking.

The strong Liverpool opening imparted enthusiasm to the local pit, but trade was on only a minor scale.

Demand for cash wheat was lacking and interest in the coarse grain was confined to barley and oats for export.

Business Leaders See Real Turn in Tide of Conditions

Sir John Aird Warns Improvement Must Be Gradual to Be Permanent—Situation in British Columbia Is Encouraging

TORONTO, Nov. 3 (CP).—Belief that the tide of the business world has finally turned was held today by bankers and heads of big Toronto firms, who based their hope on the British elections and the rising wheat prices mainly.

"Of course people must not be carried away," warned Sir John Aird, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, today. "There is undoubtedly some speculation in wheat, but higher prices seem to be justified. The change must, of necessity be gradual."

"The principal thing," Sir John emphasized, "is that every cent that wheat advances in price means $2,000,000 more for the Western farmer because 250,000,000 bushels represent the amount there is to export this year."

John drew attention to the fact that the Canadian Government is also paying a five-cent bonus on wheat now.

BRIGHT SPOTS IN NEWS. VANCOUVER, Nov. 3.—Bright spots in business news in British Columbia today included the following: More men are employed on Railway divisions in British Columbia than for some time due to a heavy flow of wheat into Vancouver. Transportation officials warn, however, that for this to continue an

Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines earnings for the third quarter of this year showed a sharp increase over those of the preceding quarter. Total production for the three months ended September 30, 1931, had a value of $2,764,317, which compares with $2,249,345 in the preceding quarter and with $2,613,342 in the first quarter of 1931. Net profit for the quarter was $1,083,569, compared with $520,523 in the preceding quarter and $882,946 in the first quarter of the year.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE. TORONTO, Nov. 3 (CP).—Domestic issues surged upward today on the Toronto Stock Exchange while interlisted stocks were relatively inactive. Activity was especially noticeable in issues in which the minimum price restriction was lifted yesterday. Turnover totaled 30,890 shares, involving 700 lots of which 37 were higher at the close, only 6 lower and 36 unchanged.

Brazilian was unchanged, Canadian Pacific advanced 1-2, Ford was up 1-8 and Abitibi gained 1-2 to 3 1/2. With a somewhat erratic wheat market, the advance in agricultural implement issues wavered. Cockshutt lost 1-8 and Mansey-Harris closed unchanged, after touching 6 1/4.

It was announced by the stock exchange that the following additional stocks have been added to the free trading list: Benard and Cordage preferred, Hamilton Cotton, Service Stations preferred, Edmonton City Dairy and Canadian Bakeries.

The beverage list was strong. Rumors that the Walker report will make a better showing than was earlier expected gave the stock a strong tone. It closed at 4 with a net gain of 1-8. Distillers-Segrams closed at 8 1/2, up 1-2.

Canadian Car, at 9 5/8, was up 1-2; General Steel Wares, at 3 1/4, was up 1-4; and Steel of Canada added 1-4 to close at 22 1/2. Featuring the oil section was

How IT STARTED
By JEAN NEWTON

And "River" brings us to the story of "rival," our word for a competitor, for one of two people who are striving to reach the same goal, both of whom are trying to get what only one can possess. Hardly a relationship there, to the naked eye, with a rival. And yet "rival" comes to us from the Latin rivals, which means "pertaining to a brook."

The story is: at in Latin "rivalis" acquired the connotation of "neighbors who got water from the same stream," and the Roman Digest discusses the contests that sometimes arose between such people concerning their riparian rights! And though we do not think of a brook when we speak of a rival today, that is how it started.

The Life of Thomas A. Edison

By DAVID WILSON

(Copyright, 1931, by North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)

PART XIV

Scores of inventors had toyed with the idea of motion pictures before Thomas Edison took them up, but he was the first to make them work.

Soon after he had moved his laboratories and factories to West Orange, N.J., from Menlo Park he started to work upon the development of a machine to take a series of pictures at short intervals, a machine which, when run in reverse direction, would give the impression of motion.

Before him, most persons who had worked the idea used either a series of still cameras to take successive pictures of something in motion, as in Edward Muybridge's horse race pictures of 1878, or sought to record a series of impressions, each through a different lens, upon a single photographic plate.

RESULT OF WAGER.

Muybridge's pictures taken in 1878, were the outgrowth of a bet made by Leland Stanford, famous Californian, that a trotting horse always had at least one foot on the ground. A series of cameras were focused along a racetrack, with strings across the track connected with the shutters so the horse, snapping the strings, took successive pictures of himself. Stanford won the wager. The pictures exhibited in quick succession, gave an excellent reproduction of the horse in motion, but since each camera, when its shutter snapped was directly in line with the horse, the perspective did not change. The effect was as if the spectator had been running beside the track at a speed equal to that of the horse.

The experiments with many lenses snapping in series and making successive pictures on a single plate could never have been practical, it is obvious. The field, therefore, still was almost virgin when Edison took it up just before he went to Paris in 1889. He worked a little on it then, and resumed his experiments when he returned.

HAD ADVANTAGE

He had one great advantage over all previous experimenters: George Eastman had invented and put upon the market the roll film as a substitute for cumbersome glass plates. Back in 1882, Eastman had been one of the first manufacturers to use one of Edison's individual electric light plants. In 1884, Carl W. Ackerman pointed out in a recent biography of the camera manufacturer, Eastman wrote for Edison a testimonial of the efficiency of the lighting plant which doubtless had its effect in persuading other manufacturers to try the new fangled substitute for glass.

The Eastman files of 1889 disclose extensive correspondence with Edison and his assistants over fast film in rolls for motion picture work. In the years that followed Edison's motion picture inventions made many millions of dollars in business for Eastman, but the two men, though they thus served to help each other, did not meet until after their business relationship had extended over many years.

PRINCIPLES ESTABLISHED. Edison, helped by the availability of roll film, saw at once that motion pictures, to be practicable, must be taken through a single lens with the film in rolls for motion picture work. He realized, also, that the motion must not be continuous; the film must pause for an instant while

Robot Radio Detectives

THE British Postoffice has begun its mass attack on radio pirates in the British capital. The full force of five radio detector automobiles has been concentrated in the metropolis on all persons who have radio sets that are not licensed, and they will be rounded up. The above picture shows experts making final adjustments to the detectors before they left the General Postoffice for the "round-up."

each picture was taken.

Once these ideas were recognized, the remainder of the work was purely mechanical. But it was still difficult. It was necessary to devise a way to move the strip of film at a rate which would permit exposure of twenty to forty separate pictures a second, permitting the film to come to rest while each exposure was made.

Edison accomplished this when he was able to get a film that received photographic impressions fast enough and was tough enough, when perforated along the edges, to stand the strain of fast movement and frequent pauses.

The first Edison motion picture camera, actually was put into use before 1889 ended, though the resulting film was used only for a "peep-show." It was not until 1889 that Edison conceived the idea of reversing the process of exposure, with the aid of the principle of the magic lantern, and thus make possible the exhibition upon a screen of smooth-moving life-sized photographs of persons and things in motion.

PAID HUGE ROYALTIES

Edison called his device the kineoscope. His patents on the camera and projector probably netted him more in royalties than any other series of patents awarded to him. In the early days of movies, it will be remembered, producing units as well as manufacturers of cameras and projectors were Edison subsidiaries, and the Edison movie companies were among the most successful producers in those days.

During the Boer war, when the movies already had achieved a place of importance in the entertainment world, one of the Edison producing units maintained two "armies" in the hills around Orange, which passed very acceptably with the uncritical audiences of those days as South Africanveldt. For weeks the battles of the war as reported in cable dispatches, were reenacted before the camera.

Between 1910 and 1912, Edison devoted considerable time to attempts to combine the talking machine and the motion picture, and he devised the first talking movie. The feature production was a minstrel show which was widely exhibited in vaudeville theatres. But the effect with sound and pictures not too well synchronized, was artificial, and the public rejected it. By the time the "talkies" of today were being developed, Edison was no longer interested in that field.

(Tomorrow: Edison's ten-year search for the perfect storage battery.)

HAVE NARROW ESCAPE; BURIED UNDER MUD

TAOYAMA, Nov. 3 (AP).—Buried beneath tons of earth as a portion of a sidewalk swept in upon them while they were working in a deep ditch, Clarence Eugene Kohler, twenty-one, and Henry Hammerlund, forty-five, narrowly escaped death this afternoon. Revived by police, who were called, the two were taken to the County Hospital suffering from shock and possible internal injuries from the crushing power of the earth.

Other workmen nearby frantically dug the dirt away and soon had the heads of both men exposed. The work of actually removing them required many minutes, however, as the earth was wet and the men were caught in a heavy muck.

The Mysterious Whistle

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

"Ten eyes are fooled and ears deceived, 'Tis hard to know what to believe. —Farmer Brown's Boy.

Farmer Brown's Boy had climbed high on the mountainside, higher than trees grew, higher than he ever had been before, for back home there were no such high mountains. On the edge of a great rock slide he had stopped to rest and get his breath and marvel at the wonderful view spread before him. Peak on peak the mountains towered as if seeking to touch the blue sky, some of them with glittering white caps of snow. Rocky crags were all about him. High above him Talons the Golden Eagle sailed in majestic circles. He saw no other living creature. A feeling of awe took possession of him. Never had he felt quite so utterly alone.

Presently Talons disappeared in the distance and the feeling of loneliness was greater than ever. Up on these bare rocks the boy was no life. He was sure of it. He spoke aloud just to hear his own voice.

"I feel as if I were on top of the world," said he, "yet this old mountain goes on up and up and there are other peaks higher still. I feel as if I were the only one alive in all the Great World."

At that very instant there was a sharp, clear, piercing whistle. "Hello! There must be someone else up here after all!" exclaimed Farmer Brown's Boy in surprise and looked eagerly in the direction from which the sound had come. But though he looked and looked he could see no one.

"That is queer," he muttered, and whistled in reply. There was no response, so he put two fingers in his mouth, and whistled. It was the clear, loud whistle with which he often had called Bowser the Hound when the latter was far

"That is queer," he muttered and whistled in reply

away. Again, he waited in vain. He began to have a funny feeling. He felt as if he had heard a whistle. He was positive of it.

"It must be that someone is trying to have fun with me by hiding among the rocks," thought he. "I'll mind my own business and pretend I am not interested."

So Farmer Brown's Boy sat down on a rock and pretended to be interested only in the wonderful view, but all the time he was searching the rocks with his eyes for that unseen whistler. For a long time he did not move and there was no sound. At last he got to his feet and slid down to the bottom of the rock slide. "He is hiding," he thought. "I'll climb high, or go down to camp. As he did so, he heard that whistle again, clear, sharp and piercing, and he was sure that it came from behind a jumble of rocks some distance away along the very slope he was on.

"All right, Mr. Whoever-you-are, if you are hiding or there I'll soon find you," said he, and started for the rocks.

It was farther to him than he ### had thought, for the air was so clear that it was hard to judge distances, and distant things seemed very near. But at last he reached that jumble of rocks and searched all through it in vain. There wasn't a rock big enough for a man, or even a boy, to hide behind that he didn't examine. Such a funny look as there was on his face!

"Hello!" he shouted. "A joke is a joke and you've had yours, so come C. out and get acquainted."

The only reply was the echo of his own voice. He began to have a queer feeling. "If that fellow is a bashful what did he whistle for in the first place?" he muttered.

Once more he shouted, and as before the echo of his own voice was the only reply. "All right for you. If you don't want my company I won't force it on you," said he, and began his downward climb toward camp. Not until he was nearly at the bottom of the rock slide did he hear anything more.

Then again came that clear whistle and this time it was answered by another farther away. It was mysterious, v. mysterious indeed.

"I'm coming back here tomorrow morning early and if that fellow, or those fellows, try any more such tricks I'll find them," he promised himself.

The next story: "The Whistler Is Discovered."

Imports of American wheat and flour into China for flood-relief are reported to have averted speculation in rice.

LETHBRIDGE, Nov. 3 (AP).—A sugar beet digger was completed on Saturday, and the sugar factory at Raymond, employing 300 men, is now busy slicing beets at the rate of 1,000 tons daily, turning out over a quarter of a million pounds of sugar each twenty-four-hour shift. The total beet tonnage this year reached approximately 108,000 tons from 12,000 acres. More than a million dollars will be put in circulation as a result of the beet sugar industry of Southern Alberta this fall, of which over half a million will go to the farmer growers.

Striking Election Manifesto

By Ex-Alderman E. S. WOODWARD
Mayoralty Candidate and Advocate of Substantial Tax Abatement

To the Electors of the City of Victoria:

Freedom From Sectionalism

I am a candidate for the Mayoralty. No sectional delegations have influenced me, no special interests are furthering my candidature.

Depression Due to Trade Obstacles

I view with alarm prevailing tendencies in national, provincial and municipal governments to trade, State deterrents of initiative and intolerable imposts upon Capital and Labor, have brought stoppage of industry, ruin to executives, unemployment to workers, and a deplorable increase of paternalism.

Paternalism No Substitute for Open Opportunity

Paternalism, however necessary in the presence of social chaos, is a poor substitute for the culture of self-reliance in the garden of open opportunity.

Civic Problems Originate in Federal and Provincial Maladjustments

Many of the problems of the City have their origin in Provincial and Federal maladjustments. As a lifelong inquirer in the realm of economics I desire the opportunity of contributing to the solution of these problems. It is inevitable that municipalities will be consulted; it is imperative that their representatives shall be familiar with the larger problems of modern society.

Praises Famous Macmillan Report

Recurrent periods of trade depression will persist so long as causes remain operative. Contraction of currency, alienation of natural resources, accumulation of intolerable unproductive public debts, overcapitalization of companies, stock exchange speculation, the ever extending functions of government and the uneconomic construction of public works are amongst matters which call for careful inquiry and demand wise action. The now famous Macmillan Report on the relationship of banking to industry—coming as it does from a committee of decided orthodox tendencies—is a striking confirmation of the contention that there are serious defects in our present banking and currency systems.

Foresees Heavy Deficit

The local issues of the campaign are the most momentous since the incorporation of the City. The financial year will close with a large deficit of unknown dimensions. An indifferently managed works programme is in course of execution which presages a still heavier deficit later. The refunding bond issue authorized in 1931 remains unsold by reason of unfavorable market conditions. And the ability to pay of the average citizen was never less. If ever there was urgent need to "temper the wind to the shorn lamb" the occasion is now.

Protests Bad Management of Unemployment Relief

I protest against the continuance of unemployment relief works except under conditions fair to both taxpayers and workers. Co-operation with Federal and Provincial authorities should eliminate unemployment altogether. The idea that money disbursed by governments from the proceeds of taxation employs more men than the same money left to private enterprise, a fallacy. My whole endeavor will be to solve unemployment by removing the cause. Pending that solution, relief work should be placed upon a satisfactory business basis. I deny the necessity of incurring heavy loss. Fair wages should be paid and a fair day's work demanded. I pledge myself to a policy of strictly economic expenditure of public money.

"A VOTE FOR E. S. WOODWARD IS A MIGHTY BLOW AT HIGH TAXATION"

Advocates Large Tax Reduction by Debt Consolidation

Debt consolidation is the logical means to effect substantial tax abatement. Unless this is accomplished the 1932 mill rate will be by far the highest in the history of the City. I propose to consolidate the debt, spread it equitably over an extended period and achieve payment to the extent of not less than $300,000.00. No refunding issue need be placed on an unfavorable market. I have dealt with this subject in previous years and time has proven the soundness of my contention. My election and the adoption of my policies will be the best guarantee against oppressive taxation next year. I would point out that $300,000.00 is the equivalent of 7 1/2 mills.

Opposes Curtailment of Essential Services

I am opposed to the curtailment of services and the neglect of streets, stands for the proper maintenance of parks, playgrounds, streets, sidewalks, etc. There is nothing gained by retrogression and everything to be gained by marching in the vanguard of progress. Victoria's past is instructive; its present is perplexing; but its future is as bright as any city in the British Dominions or elsewhere.

Tackles Problem of Greater Victoria

If elected to office I shall bring under strict scrutiny and review the City's relationship with surrounding municipalities. Present conditions are unsatisfactory. Means should be found to effect greater equilibrium in the tax rates, a fair apportionment of the cost of services and a larger share in building development. The importance of this question to Victoria can scarcely be overestimated.

Relief for Trade Licensees

The benefits accruing from my tax easement proposals must be fairly distributed amongst the various classes now bearing the burden of taxation. I shall stand unswervingly for the right of trade licensees to secure recognition.

Transportation for Outlying Districts

I shall give earnest attention to all demands from citizens for transportation facilities. There are districts—such as Northeast Victoria near Finlayson and Cook Streets—which are at present denied either bus or street car service. It should be possible to persuade the B.C. Electric to establish feeder services for all such outlying districts.

Will Investigate Cost of Commodities

The high cost of living in Victoria as compared with Vancouver calls for searching inquiry. Such inquiry I shall promptly initiate. The list of commodities costing more here than in Vancouver is said to include milk, groceries, meat, gasoline, etc. It is in the general interest that such matters should be satisfactorily adjusted.

Will Make No False Promises

My record of ten years' honorary service as Alderman is well known to you. I did not please everybody—I did not try. I did seek to render service and make the contribution which seemed to fit the facts as I found them. I gained much experience and this experience I now place at your disposal. To the best of my belief I never gave false promises and I am certainly making none now. I shall stand unswervingly to my platform of policies in the event of my election and the adoption of my policies is your guarantee against oppressive taxation next year.

Yours for better times,

E. S. WOODWARD
